Subject: Appearing before the Board of County Commissioners

Dear Commissioner Rolle:

Generally speaking, former County Commissioners are barred from lobbying County officials or County employees for two years after their County service has ceased. This rule does not apply to a former elected official who within two years of leaving office wishes to appear before the Board of County Commissioners in his or her individual capacity for the purpose of self-representation. Thus, you may appear in front of the County Commission tomorrow in your individual capacity to express your support for or your opposition to an agenda item.

If you have any questions concerning the above, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert Meyers, Executive Director
Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust
