

MEMO

To: File
FROM: Victoria Frigo
DATE: March 28, 2011
RE: INQ 11-52

Alberto Delgado, a land-use attorney with Shutts Bowen, asked if his firm could contribute to the campaign fund of a mayoral candidate in the upcoming county election without jeopardizing its ability to lobby the county.

I replied that no county ordinance prohibited campaign contributors to lobby the county, but the prohibition existed in the City of Miami Beach.