Subject: INQ - Murray Greenberg

Former County Attorney Murray asked whether he would be required to register as a lobbyist under the County ordinance where he is representing a private client that has an interest in changing the county charter. Mr. Greenberg expects to be meeting with members of the county attorney's office staff to discuss the wording of a particular proposal in which his client is interested. He will not be meeting with or lobbying elected officials, but, at some point, the County Commission would have to vote on a charter change proposal preliminary to its being put on the ballot. Therefore, I advised Mr. Greenberg that his interactions with the County Attorney's Office, in pursuance of modifications or changes in the language of a proposal that would foreseeably come up for a vote by the County Commission, would require him to register under Section 2-11.1(s) of the county code.
