Subject: Nonvoting board members (INQ 13-188)

Hello Shania,

Nonvoting members of the Military Affairs Board are not required to file financial disclosure forms as long as they do not perform any final, decision-making functions similar to voting members.

Additionally, this opinion assumes that nonvoting members of the Military Affairs Board have not been authorized, under any circumstances, to sign proposals, execute agreements, or approve any other pledges on behalf of the board. See County Code at Sec. 2-11.1 (i) as interpreted by RQO 13-06, RQO 10-25, and RQO 05-66.

If you have additional questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

VICTORIA FRIGO, SENIOR STAFF ATTORNEY

Subject: legal opinion re: filing of non-voting members

Hi Victoria hope all is well.

We were contacted by the US Marine Corp regarding the filing of financial disclosure. They would like an opinion as to whether or not non-voting members serving on the Military Affairs board should be subjected to filing. A particular member in question is active reserve as well.

Please provide us your professional opinion on the matter. Many thanks!
